POST-TRAVEL DISCLOSURE FORM

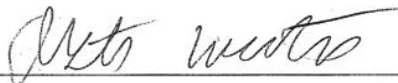

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This form is for disclosing the receipt of travel expenses from private sources for meetings, speaking engagements, fact-finding trips, or similar events undertaken in connection with official duties. This form does not eliminate the need to report all privately-funded travel on the annual Financial Disclosure Statements of those persons required to file them. In accordance with House Rule 25, clause 5, complete this form and file it with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, B-106 Cannon House Office Building, within 15 days after travel is completed. The Clerk is to make the second page of this form publicly available as soon as possible after it is filed.

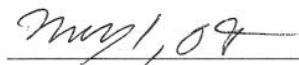

Name of Traveler (print or type): Austin Weatherford

I certify that the information contained on all pages of this form is true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge.

SIGNATURE OF TRAVELER:

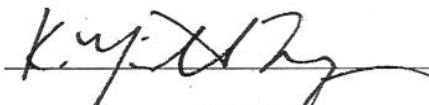

DATE:

I authorized this travel in advance. I have determined that all of the expenses listed on this form were necessary and that the travel was in connection with the employee's official duties and would not create the appearance that the employee is using public office for private gain.

Mr. Austin Weatherford
Office of the Honorable K. Michael Conaway
1527 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

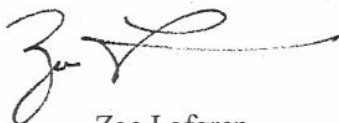

Dear Mr. Weatherford:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct hereby approves your proposed trip to Las Vegas scheduled for April 18 to 21, 2009 sponsored by the National Association of Broadcasters. We note that this trip includes one day at your personal expense.

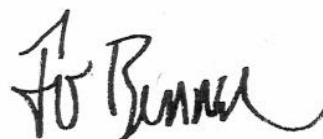

You must complete an Employee Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are required to attach a copy of this letter and the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, including all attachments. You must also include a copy of the Traveler Form completed by you and signed by your employing Member. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $335 from a single source on Schedule VII of that statement.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Zoe Lofgren

LEADERS IN BROADCASTING PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Monday, April 20, 2009

7:30 - 8:30 a.m.

A Breakfast Invitation – Mobile DTV: The Power of Broadcast on the Go
Las Vegas Hilton, Ballroom A

More than 65 television stations from 20 broadcast station groups are already on board in 25+ markets, and the list just keeps on growing. ATSC Mobile DTV is sweeping the nation, delivering the power of real-time broadcast television to consumers on the go. Next-generation portable devices picking up TV signals will bring viewers local news, weather and traffic, as well as national sports and network entertainment. The Open Mobile Video Coalition (OMVC) panel seeks to educate NAB Show attendees with the latest information on broadcaster and device manufacturer commitment, the affordable transmission facility improvements, and the flexible system architecture, which supports a variety of business models offering limitless interactivity and advanced subscriber features. The opportunities are endless for this new medium that moves as fast as consumers do!

9 -10:15 a.m.

State of the Industry Address
David K. Rehr, President and CEO, National Association of Broadcasters
Las Vegas Hilton, Barron Room

The NAB Show opening will feature NAB President and CEO David Rehr, who will deliver his fourth annual State of the Industry Address.

10:30 -11:45 am

Regulating Broadcast Programming – Is Content King or Will Government Reign?
N231/233

Complying with the FCC's indecency, content and sponsorship identification rules can be thorny tasks. On the other hand, broadcasters must always be on the lookout for innovative, interesting programming that will attract audiences. This panel will discuss the impact of recent legal and industry developments on broadcast content. Listen as key FCC staff and legal experts, as well as industry leaders, run through both the pitfalls and opportunities of various types of broadcast programming.

1:30 - 2:15 p.m.

Television Luncheon and Broadcasting Hall of Fame Induction
Hilton Barron Room

This gathering is always a highlight of the convention. It is television's opportunity to step back and examine its challenges and salute its achievements. You'll raise your glass to award recipients who helped our medium merit its central role in American life. This year's honorees are Bob Newhart, comedian and actor, best known for "The Bob Newhart Show," and Shonda Rhimes, creator of ABC's "Grey's Anatomy" and "Private Practice."

2:15 - 4:00 p.m.

Tour of NAB 2008 Show Floor
Las Vegas Convention Center

The NAB Show puts 80 years of broadcast industry experience on display with more than 1600 exhibitors, generating an estimated $50 billion in commerce. Program participants will visit vendor booths and see exhibitor displays through this tour of the show floor.

4:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Wireless Microphone Demonstration

MGM Grand Hotel

Wireless microphones are an active user of television spectrum. This behind-the-scenes look will allow program participants to see how extensively wireless microphones are used in Las Vegas shows and how essential their uninterrupted operation is to a successful performance.
